You died @ once every 14 seconds over your 3900 hours. I'd be interested to see ANet verify this one whew I was scared for a sec. When I saw the title of your post I was afraid you were gonna say your character has a limit to how many times it can die.

Perdition Rock is pretty good for it too - get some flesh golems and hydras to come for you, run to the shrine, and each time they'll get stronger (minions)

I like to go into SF with the henches sometimes and sit underneath one of those things that smash you. Henches res, then you die again, and they repeat ressurecting you. Haven't really tried to score a record though, lol.
