Oh yeah, way to go. Your 1337 afk skillz wtfpwnbbq111.

His only problems, as he said, were not being able to leave his computer on 24/7 and getting disconnected. You should get a title for doing nothing.

At least with the Dragon Festival ticket games you had to spend money for those afk titles. I'm sure they suffered the same 2 problems above as well plus only having 7 days to get them.

Hmmmmm, I don't know. What if you have to choose between someone with survivor title, or someone with a high death title? I think it's not a very complimenting title. I don't like dying. Having 1.000.000 deaths on your name doesn't make people think much of you. Especially when you tell partymembers that you are aiming for a higher deaths rank.

1 billion would take ~3,600,000 hours. Thats 300,000 days at 12 hours a day. Thats 10000 months at 30 days a month. Thats about 830 years.

Hmm, better startup that death bot...

How can you do that? Doesnt the xp from mobs get to zero long before that? Or can you "lvl" mobs by dying,then get xp?
